Full IAEA – OK  All heirs waive bond  Decedent died intestate  Residence: Fresno Publication: The Business Journal  Estimated Value of the Estate: Real property- $100,000.00  Probate Referee: RICK SMITH	NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS:  CONTINUED FROM 08/01/12  As of 08/30/12, the following issues remain: 1. Nomination of Petitioner and Waivers of Bond have been filed by: Karen Cade                      Mona Cade James Cade                     Ada Cade Alberta Cade                  Alan Cade Jr. Roberta Cade                 Rick Cade Linda Putica                  Steve Cade Need waivers from Michael Cade, and Aimiee Cade in her capacity as Guardian Ad Litem for Chayce Cade and Drew Cade. 2. Aimiee Cade, mother of minor beneficiaries Chayce Cade and Drew Cade was appointed as Guardian Ad Litem of both Chayce and Drew on 08/03/12. A guardian ad litem must either be an attorney or be represented by an attorney. It appears that the Petitioner Alan Cade, Jr. petitioned to have Aimiee appointed as the Guardian Ad Litem. It is unclear if an attorney is representing Aimiee Cade in her capacity as Guardian Ad Litem or whether she is an attorney. Further, if she is being represented by Petitioner's attorney, Mark Edwards, does this present a conflict of interest. The Court may require further information.  Note: If the petition is granted, status hearings will be set as follows:  • Friday, 11/16/2012 at 9:00a.m. in Dept. 303 for the filing of the inventory and appraisal and • Friday, 09/20/2013 at 9:00a.m. in Dept. 303 for the filing of the first account and final distribution. 		Petitioner states that temporary conservatorship is necessary because the proposed conservatee suffers from numerous ailments including diabetes, Parkinsons, and dementia. Further, the proposed conservatee's son, Greg Eller, has been taken financial advantage of the proposed conservatee and poses a threat to her physical and financial health. Petitioner states that Greg administered a large dose of insulin to the proposed conservatee which almost caused her death. Further, Petitioner alleges that Greg has a drug and alcohol problem and no driver license but continues to drive the proposed conservatee's vehicle posing a liability to the proposed conservatee. Petitioner states that he was nominated by his parents (proposed conservatee and her deceased husband) to be the successor trustee of their trust as well as appointed under a Durable Power of Attorney and Advance Health Care Directives to act on her behalf should she become incapacitated.

Court Investigator Dina Calvillo filed a report on 08/30/12.

Opposition to Appointment of Temporary Conservator of the Person and Estate of Patricia Eller filed 08/31/12 by Patricia Eller ("Respondent") states: she does not want to be conserved and states that she desires to manage her own affairs and has taken steps necessary for the management of her affairs. She has updated various estate planning documents originally drafted by the law office of Barrus and Roberts, P.C. which were signed on 09/01/11 by Mrs. Eller and her late husband, Kenneth Eller. Specifically Respondent has 1) executed a Certificate of Trust in order to revoke any legitimate authority Petitioner may have had, if any, as trustee of the Eller Family Trust dated 09/01/11 (the "Trust"), 2) amended her Trust naming Bruce Bickel, professional fiduciary, to be the first successor trustee of the Trust, 3) executed a new financial power of attorney appointing Bruce Bickel as her attorney-in-fact, and 4) executed a new advance health care directing appointing Gregory Eller, her son, as her agent. Further, should conservatorship become necessary, Respondent has nominated Bruce Bickel to be conservator of her estate and her son Gregory Eller to be conservator of the person, therefore if a Conservator of the Person and/or estate is necessary, Respondent has nominated individuals to fill those roles and it would be inappropriate for Petitioner to be so named if this court were to determine that a conservatorship is warranted.

Respondent further alleges that Petitioner has violated the trust of Respondent as follows: 1) on or about 07/13/12, without Respondent's knowledge or consent, Petitioner withdrew $49,143.62 out of Respondent's State Center Credit Union account; 2) Petitioner, possibly in concert with Michael Eller, has taken items from Respondent's residence including the keys to Respondent's vehicles and a travel trailer, 3) Petitioner has failed to return the funds withdrawn from Respondent's State Center Credit Union account and the keys to Respondent's vehicles and travel trailer, 4) Petitioner served a 60 day eviction notice on Respondent's son, Gregory Eller, who Respondent does not want or desire to be evicted from her residence, 5) On the weekend of July 14-15, Petitioner treated Respondent's guests with hostility and contempt by using profanity and physical intimidation, 6) Petitioner has refused to return pictures of Respondent's late husband Kenneth Eller, 7) Petitioner has taken actions making Respondent insecure in her residence resulting in Respondent changing her locks on her residence on two occasions. Further, Petitioner's acquisition of Respondent's State Center Credit Union bank account has left Respondent without sufficient money to pay her bills and expenses, including legal representation, resulting in Respondent's financial dependence on friends until she begins to receive survivor's benefits from CalPERS. Further, Respondent has not been able to obtain funeral expense reimbursement from CalPERS because reimbursement must be paid to the person who paid the funeral expenses and Petitioner paid the expenses using Respondent's Trust money. Because Respondent did not want Petitioner to receive any more money than he has already taken from her, she has not completed reimbursement process and therefore may lose out on the reimbursement. Finally, because the legality of Petitioner's withdrawal of Respondent's funds from her bank account is questionable, an investigation into Petitioner's actions has been initiated by the Clovis Police Department (Case No. 12-12194). Based on the foregoing, Respondent requests that the Petition for Appointment of temporary conservator of the person and estate of Patricia Eller be denied.
